

I have several problems with the proceeding 23-210

There is no discussion of consumer privacy in the letter, and will increase costs of user equipment. I will not vote again for any politician that opts to vote for this bill.